About Ripple Foundation	24

This project springs from a joyous celebration of literature and community engagement. During The Word On The Street event held on May 27-28, 2023, we embarked on a journey to gather favourite book titles from the 488 participants who shared their love of reading with us. From this rich tapestry of suggestions, we derived 336 unique titles, a testament to our community’s diverse literary tastes.

This project, made possible by our dedicated volunteers, community partners, and, most importantly, you - the readers, reflects the kaleidoscopic world of literature that thrives in our community. Dive in, and perhaps discover a new favourite book within these pages!

Ripple Foundation is a volunteer-run educational charity in Canada. We champion creative literacy among children and youth with our free community programs, fostering confidence, creativity, and critical thinking – essential skills for personal growth.

All our programs are free and provides unique opportunities for our participants to explore their creativity and shape their voices.

Kids Write 4 Kids – This annual, nationwide creative writing contest encourages children in grades 4-8 to let their imagination fly. Winning stories are published as books and sold online, with proceeds going to a charity of the winner's choice, fostering a sense of philanthropy among our young authors.

Write It Workshops – A creative writing workshop for grades 4-8, held virtually every Saturday. Participants are motivated to find their unique voice and gain confidence in their writing choices, creating a foundation for aspiring authors to compete in the Kids Write 4 Kids annual writing contest.

Wave Blog – A platform dedicated to amplifying the voices of young authors in grades 8-12. Here, students can share their viewpoints and experiences on various topics that resonate with them. New posts are published weekly; students can earn up to five volunteer hours per blog post.

Express Inspire Connect – Our annual, virtual youth-led conference fosters engaging dialogue and connection among Canada's students in grades 8-12. This platform empowers our next-generation leaders to inspire change in their lives and communities.

As a 100% volunteer-run charity, we are committed to providing all of our programs at no cost. However, we depend solely on the generosity of donations and kindly invite you to help support our mission.

Donate online or purchase a t-shirt, organic tote bag, art print or throw pillow from our Merch Store.
