Shared Stories, Endless Inspiration: Ripple Foundation's Favourite Reads of the Year

Now in its fourth year, this initiative began with a simple idea: to celebrate our shared love of reading and the connections stories create. Each year at The Word On The Street, we invite readers to tell us about a book that has inspired, comforted, or delighted them.

This year, 634 readers stopped by our booth to add a title to the shelf. Their picks range from beloved childhood classics to this year's breakout reads, and together they form a living snapshot of what moves us to read, reflect, and imagine.

This project continues to thrive thanks to our dedicated volunteers, our community partners, and most of all, you, the readers. We hope this year's collection sparks curiosity, connection, and a few new additions to your own bookshelf.

This compilation includes five lists. The first ranks the books our participants named most often. The other four are grouped by category (Fiction, Non-Fiction, Young Adult, and Children's) and listed alphabetically by title.

Ripple Foundation is a 100% volunteer-run Canadian charity. Every program we offer is free, funded entirely by donations. Our creative writing programs for Grades 4–12 include a national writing contest, workshops, a youth blog, and a youth-led conference. If this list reminded you how much a single story can matter, please donate to help the next generation of storytellers get their start.

Kids Write 4 Kids – A nationwide creative writing contest for Grades 4–8, running since 2012. Winners become published authors, and each year, proceeds from Kids Write 4 Kids book sales are donated to a charity chosen by that year's winners.

Write It Workshops – Virtual creative writing workshops for Grades 4–8, held every Saturday. Open to any student who loves to write, whether they're just exploring or getting ready to enter Kids Write 4 Kids.

Wave Blog – A weekly blog by youth, for youth. Students in Grades 8–12 share their experiences and perspectives on issues that matter to their generation, while earning volunteer hours with every published post.

Express Inspire Connect – A youth-led virtual conference for Grades 8–12, uniting students nationwide to exchange ideas, explore creativity, and inspire positive change in their communities.

Your support keeps our programs free for youth across Canada. Make a gift today and help us inspire the next generation of writers.
